SUNDAY AFTER THEOPHANY/ SYNAXIS OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

Sunday January 20, 2018

Acts 19:1-8, 2 John 1:29-34

Tropars and Kondaks Tone 1 p148

Welcome! We welcome to our church this morning all visitors, guests, relatives, and friends of Saints Peter and Paul Church. We pray your visit with us is spiritually rewarding, holy and life-giving. Visit often!

“It is a great art to succeed in having your soul sanctified. A person can become a saint anywhere. He can become a saint in Omonia Square*, if he wants. At your work, whatever it may be, you can become a saint through meekness, patience, and love. Make a new start every day, with new resolution, with enthusiasm and love, prayer and silence — not with anxiety so that you get a pain in the chest.”

— St. Porphyrios

“We do not change the boundaries marked out by our Fathers. We keep the Tradition we have received. If we begin to lay down the Law of the Church even in the smallest things, the whole edifice will fall to the ground in no short time.”

+ St. John of Damascus

We have scheduled a presentation on Missions by Fr. John Chakos on February 9th at the Humanities & Social Sciences building on the IUP campus in Indiana from 2-4 PM. Fr. John has done extensive missionary work, especially in Guatemala. We are arranging this in conjunction with the college OCF and all the local Orthodox Churches. Fr. Matthew is requesting all those who are able to attend to do so.
