3– In Memory of Sam, Family, for Health of Family, and Thanksgiving/ by Deb Sasala

“A continuously happy life produces extremely unhappy consequences. In nature we see that there are not always pleasant springs and fruitful summers, and sometimes autumn is rainy and winter cold and snowy, and there is flooding and wind and storms, and moreover the crops fail and there are famine, troubles, sicknesses and many other misfortunes. All of this is beneficial so that man might learn through prudence, patience and humility. For the most part, in times of plenty he forgets himself, but in times of various sorrows he becomes more attentive to his salvation.”
+ St. Ambrose of Optina,

RETREAT: HEALING THE SHATTERED IMAGE. Emotional Awareness on the Path to Acceptance & Change. Saturday, November 10-11, 2018. Our emotional life is a window into understanding God’s image in which we were created. However, too often we learn to discount our emotional response to life’s challenges as unimportant or embarrassing, causing our relationship with ourselves and with God to become distorted or blocked. This workshop will help heal these disruptions through emotional awareness and acceptance, giving way to a deeper experience of ourselves through our relationship with God.
Schedule: Saturday, November 10, 8:30AM-5:00PM Lunch is provided. Sunday, November 11, 1:00-3:00PM (Conclusion). Location: St. George Antiochian Orthodox Cathedral, 3400 Dawson Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15213.
