“Human beings have accumulated in their coffers gold and silver, clothes more sumptuous than useful, diamonds and other objects that are evidence of war and tyranny; then a foolish arrogance hardens their hearts; for their brothers in distress, no pity. What utter blindness! . . . Attend not to the law of the strong but to the law of the Creator. Help nature to the best of your ability, honor the freedom of creation, protect your species from dishonor, come to its aids in sickness, rescue it from poverty Seek to distinguish yourself from others only in your generosity. Be like gods to the poor, imitating God’s mercy. Humanity has nothing so much in common with God as the ability to do good.”

St. Gregory of Nazianzus, On Love of the Poor

Please see the Lenten Retreat information downstairs.

Confessions before the Divine Liturgy next Sunday at 9:30 AM.

Please remember those who are ill, in homes, or not able to attend services.

Please think about what you would like to review for our Lenten classes. Let Father Matthew know your suggestions.

Our furnace is once again broken and will need replaced. Mike Charnego will have more info next week.
