As we progress through lent, I want to thank everyone for all of their hard work for the church. There has been and continues to be much needed help with soup/halupki /halushki sale, preparing and making of rolls and bread, maintenance, prosphora making, cleaning, meal and food preparation, services participation and singing, praying, caring for shut-ins and those in need,..., and thank you also for your continued love and spiritual growth.

May God grant to all of you a continued blessed lent and joyous Pascha.

Fr. Matthew

“Because of the Fall of man, the natural order of things has become chaotic. In nature, there is an order for all things, but with man there is chaos, Everything is distorted and turned around. Because of our disobedience to the commandments of our Heavenly Father, we have lost the natural order. In order to reestablish this order, we must practice abstinence.”

“He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; said Jesus Christ [John 14:12]. And in truth, the deeds of an Elias, a Moses, the works of a Peter, a Paul, and the wonders of a Panteleimon, a Nicholas, are not a strange thing in the Holy Orthodox Church. The like is repeated again and again in the Church, whether you see it or not.”
+ St. Sebastian Dabovich

“He who wants to overcome the spirit of slander, should not ascribe the blame to the person who falls, but to the demon who suggests it. For no one really wants to sin against God, even though we do all sin without being forced to do so.”
+ St. John Climicus, Step 10.5, Ladder of Divine Ascent
