Blessed Palm Sunday

I want to “again” thank the many people who have been working so diligently in making food and rolls this year. We have lost a few helpers due to illness and a number of people have stepped up their efforts. THANK YOU! With our needs growing and numbers dwindling everyone’s help is needed and greatly appreciated.

How shall I, the unworthy one, appear in the splendor of Thy saints? For if I dare enter Thy bridal chamber with them, my garments will betray me; they are unfit for a wedding. The angels will cast me out in chains. Cleanse the filth of my soul, O Lord, and save me in Thy love for mankind.

As the sinful woman was bringing her offering of myrrh, the disciple was scheming with lawless men. She rejoiced in pouring out her precious gift. He hastened to sell the precious one. She recognized the Master, but Judas parted from Him. She was set free, but Judas was enslaved to the enemy. How terrible his slothfulness! How great her repentance! O Savior, who didst suffer for our sakes, grant us also repentance, and save us.
