SUNDAY OF THE PARALYTIC/ THE RIGHTEOUS JOB

Sunday May 12, 2019

Acts 9:32-42, John 5:1:15

Tropars and Kondaks Tone 3 and page 202

Christ is Risen! Indeed, He is Risen!

Welcome! We welcome to our church this morning all visitors, guests, relatives, and friends of Saints Peter and Paul Church. We pray your visit with us is spiritually rewarding, holy and life-giving. Visit often!

The Ladies Altar Society will have a meeting after the Liturgy. All members are asked to attend.

Every sin, however small, would inevitably bring death if Mercy were not to allow suffering in order to sober men up from the inebriation of sin; for the healing that comes through suffering is brought about by the gracefilled power of the Holy and Life-giving Spirit. + St. Nikolai Velimirovich,

Birthdays – Brett Stitler 5/17, Kevin Sasala 5/23

“According to Church tradition, that is exactly what happened to the invalid (Paralytic) upon whom the Lord had shed His bounty. He did not heed the warning, “Sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.” The lesson for the fourth week after Pascha, the week of the invalid, says that this infirm man, so wondrously healed by the Lord, was the very man who struck Our Lord Jesus Christ upon the cheek during the trial before the High Priest (St. John 18:22), for which he obtained “a trial worse than the weakening of limbs”– that eternal fire, not for eight and thirty years alone, but unto time everlasting, should torment him.” Archbishop Averky
