DORMITION OF ST. ANNA

Sunday August 7, 2016

Romans 15:1-7, Matt. 9:27-35

Tropar and Kondak Tone 6 page 96

Welcome to those visiting today. Please stay for our luncheon downstairs.

Please continue to review the Stewardship information on the basement table. This is of continued importance for us and for the diocese.

Thank you for all those who brought food in for the Love Basket pantry. You are truly doing God's work. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Today the children come home from Camp Nazareth. You can see pictures of them and all their activities, including the new ropes course, on the Camp Nazareth web site. Thank you for keeping them in your prayers and be sure to ask them about their experiences.

"If you are truly interested in the welfare of your children, why do you not watch as strictly, but once a week, how they attend to their lessons in the study of the Law of God, as you do in some home-work, which the children seemed to be forced to have prepared within the next twelve hours for their public school? You must obey God, above the public and all other masters, or lose your souls for the responsibility which rests upon you for the present and future welfare of your children." St. Sebastian Dabovich

"We cannot live in such a way that no one grieves or offends us, for the Apostle Luke writes: we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God (Acts 14:22), and bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ (Gal. 6:2). Let us therefore ask that we may bear sorrows with self-reproach and humility and not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good, and with the Prophet say: With them that hate peace I was peaceable (Ps. 119:6)." St. Hilarion of Optina

Confessions - 9:00 Sunday or arranged as needed.

Truth is not a thought, not a word, not a relationship between things, not a law. Truth is a Person. It is a Being which exceeds all beings and gives life to all. If you seek truth with love and for the sake of love, she will reveal the light of His face to you inasmuch as you are able to bear it without being burned. St. Nicholas of Serbia
