“You know that the first blow the devil gave to Job was through his possessions; and he saw that he had not grieved him nor separated him from God. With the second blow, he touched his flesh, but the brave athlete did not sin by any word that came out of his mouth in that either. In fact, he had within his heart that which is of God, and he drew on that source unceasingly.”

You may have heard in the news of a growing dispute in Ukraine between the Orthodox Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia Kirill and Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew. I have not found anything posted on our diocesan web site. The secular news site gives a brief description <https://www.pressherald.com/2018/09/14/russian-orthodox-officials-debate-ukraine-strategy/> If anyone has questions, I will try to answer to the best of my ability until more information is forthcoming.
